

ETERNITY

2014 RESERVE ESTATE CABERNET

...and the beautiful dance with Mother Nature continues

IN THE VINEYARD & WINERY

Leading into the 2014 season, drought conditions worried growers throughout Napa Valley. Yet, bud break came early and beautiful weather prevailed. Our reservoirs had filled, but water management in the vineyard was crucial. Timely irrigation was essential to produce perfectly ripe fruit.

In the end, every piece of the puzzle came together. There were no damaging heat spikes during the growing season and ripening balanced the early bud break with an equally early harvest. What could have been a disappointing vintage turned out to be another beauty.

After very detailed selection in the vineyard, the most ideal fruit made its way to the winery. Then, pampered like the baby it was, the chosen grapes received optical sorting, barrel fermenting, and hand punch downs. Each step designed to allow a slow unfolding of the 2014 Eternity.

REVIEW

"The 2014 Eternity appears to be a proprietary blend of Bordeaux grapes. Full-bodied, rich and much more backward than the 2014 Cabernet Sauvignon Estate, it is dense, rich, multidimensional and surprisingly structured for a 2014. Give it a couple of years of bottle age and drink it over the following 20+ years." 93+pts. — Robert Parker
